Birth Certificates: Anyone new to the Le Mars Little League program must provide a copy of the players Birth Certificate for proof of age. If the player played in the league in 2022, the certificate should already be on file.

Skills Day: For all those involved in the Junior Boys, Junior Girls, Major Boys & Major Girls will be held on Saturday, April 8th at 1:00PM at the John Britton Little League Complex (weather permitting) Games for the Juniors & Majors are scheduled to begin on Saturday, May 6th. It's strongly recommend that ALL players in these divisions attend Skills Day

Background Form: All managers, coaches, umpires and board members must fill out a new volunteer application form each year. A social security number and a copy of a drivers' license is also required with each volunteer application form.

Umpires are also needed for the 2023season: You need to be at least 16 years old. Pay will be $40 per game for Junior Boys, Girls and Major Boys, Girls.

The Le Mars Little League requires many Volunteers to insure a good program for the youth of our community and surrounding area. If you would like to offer your time and services we are always looking for managers and coaches for the 2023 season.
